Re: Pension of Dr L.C. Coleman

1) In his letter dated 2nd Febry 34 Dr L.C. Coleman requests that he may be given "maximum pension" condoning any small deficiency of service.

2) He has been permitted to proceed on leave, preparatory to retirement, from 26th Feb. 1934 and the retirement may take effect from about the 20th Mar. 1934. (× about 22 days)
He joined service on 7-1-1908 and so he will have put in a total gross service of 26 years 2 months. This includes about 7½ months leave without allowances and 3 y. 2 m. furlough. The net qualifying service may come to a little over 25 years. In the case of Officers whose names are included in App. A. of the M.S.R (of whom Dr. Coleman is not one) the maximum limit of pension admissible for 25 yrs of service is Rs 6000 p.c but in other cases the maximum limit is on a sliding scale as noted in the margin. Dr. Coleman cannot get Rs 500/- except under special orders.

Dr. Ocleman will be entitled to privilege leave for 23 days on 28th February 1934 under Article 147 (b), Mysore Service Regulations, and may retire after utilising this leave on 21st March 1934, on which date he would have put in a total service of 26 years 2 months and 14 days. Definite information is not available in this office as regards the period of furlough leave taken outside India out of a total furlough of 3 years 4 months and 22 days. In case he has utilised the whole of this period or at least two years out of it outside India, the net qualifying service rendered by him works upto

8) If the request of Dr. Coleman for maximum pension of Rs.500 allowable for 30 years qualifying service is to be granted, a deficiency of either 6 years 9 months and 28 days or 4 years 9 months and 28 days as the case may be will have to be condoned by Government.

Re: Pension of Dr. Coleman

File No. of 193 . | General and Revenue Secretariat

Serial No.

According to the Comptroller, the pension admissible under the strict application of the rules will be as below: —

(1) Rs. 383⅓ p.m. for 23 yrs service. If no portion of his 3 years odd ~~furlough~~ furlough was spent outside India

(2) Rs 416⅔ p.m. for 25 yrs service: If at least two years of the furlough were spent outside India.

It may perhaps be safely assumed that out of the total furlough of 3 y. 4 m 22 days, Dr. Coleman spent at least two years out of India (when he had left in 1925-1927). So under the strict rules, he can get Rs 416⅔ p.m (or Rs 5,000 p.a.) ~~(2) Rs 416⅔~~ for 25 y. 2 m. 2 days.

11) The Fin. Secy. says that one year may be added as the Concession is allowed under the M.S.R. Dr. Coleman can have then Rs 433⅓ p.m. for 26 years of service. This seems to be the maximum permissible under ordinary rules. To give him higher pension is a "Special" case.

) The Fin. Secy. says that the papers relating to Dr. Coleman's claim for grant of concessionary exchange rate of pension (1s. 9d) on the basis of rules admissible in the case of officers who joined service before November 1905, may also be referred to. The terms of his appointment were settled before Nov. 1905.

and he actually joined in January 1908 He did not ask that the period spent by him in preliminary training between 1905 and 1908 be treated as qualifying service for pension. When even his request to allow him the benefit of rules in force prior to November 1905 was not considered as justified, to treat any portion of the earlier period as service under Govt. may not arise. One way of giving any benefit to Dr L.C. Coleman, if Govt. deem fit, may perhaps be to apply the analogy of officers who are entitled to the maximum pension of Rs 6000 p.a. for a service of only 25 years. Final Note by the Second Member of Council.

Subject:—

REQUEST OF DR. COLEMAN FOR GRANT OF MAXIMUM PENSION.

Dr. Coleman has been permitted to proceed on leave preparatory to retirement from the 27th February. Under the rules, the maximum pension admissible to him is only Rs.416-10-8, but Dr. Coleman requests that he may be given the maximum pension allowable for 30 years' qualifying service. In the case of certain officers mentioned in Appendix "A" of the Mysore Service Regulations, a pension of Rs.500 is admissible for service of 25 years. The total period of qualifying service of Dr. Coleman is a little over 25 years

The subject was considered in Council on the 24th February 1934, when it was resolved that Dr. Coleman may be given a pension of Rs.500 per mensem as a very special case. The Resolution of the Council may be graciously approved.

D.O.No.2590/C.B. Dated, Bangalore, 2nd February '34

Dear Dr. Coleman,

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of to-day about your retirement from the Mysore Service. In reply, I am to say that it is with the utmost regret that Government have heard that your health has broken down so badly that you have to leave India almost immediately. In the circumstances, I am to convey to you the approval of Government to your making arrangements to proceed on leave preparatory to retirement from the 26th instant.

As you have been already told in my letter No.2558/C.B. dated 30th January 1934, you can have all the privilege leave which you have earned subsequent to the date of your attaining 55 years of age.

As regards the amount of pension admissible to you, the question will be duly examined and a separate reference made to you at an early date. I am to state, in the meanwhile, that your request for the grant of maximum pension will be dealt with as sympathetically as possible.

Yours sincerely,
(Sd.) R.RANGA RAO,
Chief Secretary.

To

Dr. L.C.Coleman, M.A., Ph.D., C.I.E.,
Director of Agriculture in Mysore.

D.O. letter dated 2nd February 1934 from Dr. L.C. Coleman, Director of Agriculture in Mysore to the Chief Secretary to Government.

I enclose herewith in original a letter from Lt. Col.Hance Residency Surgeon from which you will see that it will be impossible for me to carry on and that I shall have to proceed on leave preparatory to retirement almost immediately.

When I wrote to you previously on this subject I had hoped that treatment would restore my health sufficiently to enable me to carry on till June. Col. Hance has for the past few weeks been warning that I should leave as early as possible but it is only since my leaving hospital and attempting to take up work that I have been convinced he is right.

Orders agreeing to this issued. 2/2/34 (Copy attached)

I trust therefore that Government will see their way to allowing me to go about the 26th of this month. I am making enquiries in regard to passages and hope to be able to procure them on a boat sailing about the 1st March.

I need not state how disappointed I am at having to leave work so incompletely rounded off. I had hoped to devote most of my time during the next few months to the task of clearing up arrears and rounding off work so as to cause the least possible amount of dislocation and to make the work of my successors as easy as possible. I am afraid I shall be able to do very little in this direction.

For order

There is one other point. I have not had the time to look up the question of whether I have actually put in sufficient service to qualify for the maximum pension allowed. It is possible that I may be short by a few months. In that case, I trust that Government will be able to see their way to condone the shortage and to sanction the maximum pension.

I should be greatly obliged if you would communicate the orders of Government to me at an early date.

THE MAHARAJA OF MYSORE.
